Terms

- Assistant - There will be at least one photographer's assistant at every event other than limited coverage packages. The assistant will be technically sound and skilled just as the photographer. The assistant rarely will shoot photographs.
- Bridal sitting - A bridal sitting is either a studio or an environmental portrait session including multiple looks, lighting, and images. (100-200 images) Environmental sessions can include venues like Cheekwood or Scarritt-Bennett at Vanderbilt but additional fees may apply. There is no charge for a studio session that has a complete dressing facility and a great atmosphere. Photographer provides a bouquet unless the bride wants a version of her own. If you want to display a Bridal portrait at your reception you must photograph it no later than 6 weeks before the wedding.
- Bride's or Parent's album - Albums are made of leather. All prints, mats, pages and cover are included with any bride or parent album.
- Canvas - Canvas mounting is an option for larger images. The print is mounted to canvas and then mounted on a masonite panel.
- Crops - You can crop into almost any image. Photographer can give you an idea what an image can look like cropped. Crops can range widely depending on the orientation. There is no guarantee that every image will crop to certain specifications.
- Engagement sitting - An engagement sitting is either a studio or an environmental portrait session including multiple looks and images. (100 images)
- Wedding originals - These are all of your finished wedding files on disc, complete with a copyright release for you to make your own prints.
- Online album and ordering - A web album will be posted with all images of your day. Photographer will send the Bride a username and password for any one to view and order directly from. Images will be posted for 60 days.
- Prints – Reprint and book images will be color corrected and cropped from any sitting or wedding order.
- Proofs – Machine printed 4 X 5 prints. These are not album prints and do not come displayed in a book.
- Retainer Fee – There is a $500 retainer fee for any wedding package booked. The balance is due before the wedding start time.
- Wedding coverage - The creation of images on your wedding day. (traditional and/or journalistic) Including: pre-wedding, ceremony, post-wedding and reception. Every wedding is different so the amount and type of coverage will be determined by your needs.
- Payment – We accept Cash, Check, Cashiers Check
